W. Ed Wallace and Staff Members Guests At Village Banquet

At the biggest event of the year last Friday evening, as far as the real estate boards of the desert area are concerned. W. Ed Wallace, state president, was honored with members of his staff and D. D. Watson, state real estate commissioner.

Held at the Chi Chi, the dinner-meeting was well attended by members of the local board as well as neighboring boards of Coachella. Indio, Beaumont and Banning. Several past state presidents were present including John G. Munholland, local realtor.

HIGHLIGHT of the evening was Wallace's talk in which he urged the realtors to advertise the advantages of home ownership and the economic effects and injustices of rent control. He said that local boards should develop comprehensive programs of public relations, and outlined the proposed program for 1949. He further emphasized the need for all real estate men to fight to preserve the opportunity of Americans to continue to own their own homes.

"We might as well recognize "We might as went to turn" the proposed program to the turn of the course are as the start and early part of the course are urged by Wall Spalding to reserve horses early this week since that is the only way the starting point may be reached.

THERE IS AN ADDED purse of Stoom and the third, or show horse, will receive the other 20 per cent. Entry fee is $20.

Stewards for the layout of the course are Ash McDonald, George Rasmussen and Jim Chandler.

FROM FAR OFF OTTAWA comes the most interesting comment

FROM FAR OFF OTTAWA comes the most interesting comment about California weather we have read in a long time. This editorial from the Ottawa Citizen was titled "Faith in California":

It is good to learn that a warm sun is melting California's snow. Old illusions give way to new ones with each passing generation, but Canada's faith in the constancy of California weather was always steadfast. The recent blizzards endured by Los Angeles shook the conviction of many up here that their belief in the warmth of southern California represented one of the world's few enduring truths. So many "eternal" verifies have in the past 30 years proved truths. So many "eternal" verities have in the past 30 years proved transient, it is small wonder that mankind has become seized with a feeling of insecurity. When snow mantled Los Angeles, the shock was not readily absorbed.

Police Chief August Kettmann warns Villagers that there is now a flood of counterfeit, $10 bills in the San Diego and Los Angeles area, and he expects to find many down here before long. All may easily be identified by the serial number which is the sa me in every instance—G 20964706B.

In addition, the following discrepancies may be observed for quick identification; Number seven at each of the corners, and the content of the corners, a feeling of insecurity. When snow mantled Los Angeles, the shock was not readily absorbed.

Happily, the sun has been quick to rescue Los Angeles from the unusual embrace of winter, and our faith in at least one type of changelessness—California weather—can be restored. Under our mustaches and impatiently watch the days lengthen toward spring. We Canadians have year after year refreshed our imaginations and whetted our appetites for warm sands and open water with seasonable photographs and stories of the fabulous sub-tropical land to which so many of us hope to retire some day. The strange palm there is a white streak, and the hairline of Alexander Hamilton is imperfect.

Otherwise, said Kettmann, a very fine reproduction job has been done on this. He suggests everyone in the position of making the production is in the actual printing. Just above the C in America there is a white streak, and the hairline of Alexander Hamilton is imperfect.

Otherwise, said Kettmann, a very fine reproduction job has been done on this. He suggests everyone in the position of making the printing of the certainty of rain in Vancouver, intolerable blasts of wind in Winnipeg, and splendid skiing conditions in Ottawa, Lucky, indeed, that California's snow did not last long.

By Marjorie Grant Pohl

I SAW:

BOB HOPE, back in his Palm Springs home after his tour about the United States which followed his trek to Germany. BOB proved himself tops in the role of host on Thursday when he put on an all day party here for the members of his troop, the pilots who flew the group about the country, and of course the pretty United Airlines stewardesses who deserve far more credit than they get for the part they do in making flying pleasant... There were some forty in the group who lunched at the Hope home, enjoyed the cocktail party there and later dinner at the Tennis Club. Charming songster DORIS DAY was in the party as were MR. and MRS. The sin their honor that the dinner took on a wedding tone with table decorations in bridal white flowers. HY is the announcer for the show. As always HOPE'S half hour at the microphone spelled fun. Here and there... LOUIS FISCHER, author of some thirteen books on International Politics, former foreign correspondent in Russia, and lecturer is staying out at La Paz Guest Ranch, where he is at work on a biography of Mahatma Ghandi which he will finish during his desert stay... the TOM FLEMINGS, annual winter visitors to Palm Springs from Chicago, have checked back into the Town House. Their return always spells a round of parties... houseguests at DOROTHY DUDLEYS include her daughter MRS. ROBERT L. MUTH and her three cute children DUDLEY, RODNEY and GREGORY. MRS. MUTH, who like her mother enjoys writing, just had one of her scripts accepted and produced for a television show which was done especially for the Boy Scouts... BERT KOPPERL, photographer. ## Insanities Needs Crowd Watches Ranch Gymkhana

Another call for dancers for the Insanities chorus was issued to-day by Melba Bennett, in charge of the show, and Villagers who want to take a hand—or foot—in the event are asked to call her at 2193 or show up at Frances Stevens school auditorium tomorrow night where rehearsals are in their second week.

Ernie Platt, the dance director, reports fine progress but could use a few more dancers—men, especially.

About 700 spectators watched the gymkhana at Thunderbird Ranch Sunday, according to Frank Bogert, Mayor of Louis-ville, Ky. Dan Byck, accompanied by his old friend, Villager Jim Davis, former governor of Louisiana, was present and acted as judge for the contests.

Taking two top honors and sharing the winners' accolade on another was Joe Butler, head winner for the day. Butler won the calf roping contest, the stake race, and teamed with Jane Neel,

Last year Riggs and Budge lost to the other two in match play three out of five by a score of 8-10 in the last game, and they feel they can reverse the score this time for the money, thus their challenge.

Saturday there will be some warmup singles matches and it is expected that the challenge play will consume most of the afternoon Sunday.

Marlene Railer's P Rackatoors

In their game last Thursday with the Mexican Colony the Lions, with their new talent, came out on the long end of the score 24-21. Better teamwork marked the play of the winners as evidenced by the fact that high scorer, Cecil Hartman, one of the new players, only tallied six points, showing the scoring to be general among the players.

t Adds a undred liles to the Day!

Owners of the 1949 Cadillac are going to get a pleasant surprise when they take it out for that first crosscountry run. Without any extra effort whatsoever, they are going to wind up that first day's touring about a hundred miles farther from home than they expected to be! For here, beyond any doubt, is the greatest "mile-eater" that ever rolled over a highway. We are not talking about excessive speed-because, regardless of the power they have at their command, sensible people observe the laws of the road and the rules of safety. But the 1949 Cadillac is so cat-quick and eager-so smooth and easy and effortless, regardless of terrain-that it covers an amazing amount of distance inside the safe and legal limits. The secret, of course, is found in the great new Cadillac V-type engine-plus the marvelous new engineering in the Cadillac chassis. Actually, you almost seem to move by automatic propulsion. There is no performance like it-anywhere in the world.
